SALVAGE AND SHOP

WORK IN THIS LINE FOR RED CROSS MUST CONTINUE ON BROADER SCALE

Here in Glendale, as elsewhere in California and all over the United States, constantly is heard the inquiry: "Now that war is at an end, what about the Red Cross?" That there may be no misunderstanding of the situation or of the continued need for Red Cross activity, the following circular received by Mrs. Glenwood Jones, who has been chairman of the school committee of the local chapter, has been given to the Evening News with a request for its publication.

The officials of the Red Cross are not quitters in the matter of work, and it will not do for the general public to fall down either in sustaining the splendid activities of this organization in alleviating misery in the war zone. Salvage and shop work must go on, and this circular letter sent out by the Pacific Division of the Red Cross, under date of November 22, sets forth the reasons very clearly:

"The European war came to a close so quickly that, in the days of celebration, we temporarily dropped some of our interests in Red Cross activities. Some thought, 'The war is over and there is no more Red Cross work to do.' This is not true of Red Cross work in general, and salvage and shop in particular.

"For nine months this bureau has been developing salvage and shop in chapters of the division, until now there are more than one hundred chapters doing aggressive salvage and shop work. This means that a great amount of time, energy and money was spent to build up this business. From a business man's standpoint, it would be folly 'to go out of business.'

"There are two main purposes of this bureau: First, to conserve materials, and, second, to teach lessons of conservation. Just as in war time, so now, certain materials are badly needed by our government and by manufacturing concerns. By doing this, we are producing a revenue for the local chapter which should not be overlooked. At present, this amounts to more than $75,000 per month, and it can easily be increased with careful and consistent work on the part of the salvage and shop committees.

"'We have thousands of wounded, disabled convalescents; so long as they need nursing and cheer, the Red Cross will stand by.' In the countries of Europe devastated by warring armies, there is much work to be done in relieving the disabled, helpless and starving, and to build up the morale of many European nations, both small and large.

"The committee on salvage and shop has big work to do and the chairman of this committee should rally his forces to continue the work on a larger and broader scale than ever before."

RED CROSS MEETING

NEW DIRECTORATE OF TWENTY-TWO MEMBERS CHOSEN AT ANNUAL MEETING

The adjourned annual meeting of the Red Cross took place at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the surgical dressings department at headquarters, which had been attractively decorated with flowers and flags. While not a large meeting, it was thoroughly representative in that it was attended by the workers in the chapter and those earnestly interested in its welfare.

Chairman J. H. Braley presided and called the meeting to order. Mrs. Harry Duffield, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved.

The report of the auditing committee was then read and accepted.

Chairman Braly received from the secretary a Liberty Bond for $50, which he exhibited to the gathering with the statement that it had been presented to the chapter by Mrs. Nanno Woods as a gift from the Glendale Garden Society. Applause which greeted the announcement testified to an appreciation of the donation, which presently took the form of a vote of thanks to Mrs. Woods and the Garden Society, on motion of Mrs. Bartlett.

An excellent address, in which he reviewed the four years of war, the work of the Red Cross in general and of the Glendale chapter in particular, was made by the chairman, who, at its conclusion, called for the report of the nominating committee of five appointed by the chair. Mr. Lilly, one of the members, on behalf of his committee, submitted the names of fifteen persons nominated for a permanent board of directors, an organization strongly urged by Chairman Braly as advisable now that the institution is about to be put on a peace basis. The fifteen nominees submitted by the committee were: Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Stanley Frentz, Mrs. E. D. Bacon, Ezra F. Parker, Peter L. Ferry, Mrs. H. S. Duffield, Mrs. Hartley Shaw, Harry L. Howe, Mrs. Dan Campbell, Richardson D. White, Mrs. A. A. Barton, A. T. Cowan, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay, F. H. Vesper and J. H. Braly.

While no objection was raised to any of these nominees, other nominations were made from the floor by Dr. Blackburn and Mrs. John Robert White, who urged that the chairmen of active departments be added to the directorate. Chairman Braly appeared to sympathize with the suggestion, but pointed out that the personnel of these chairmanships had changed frequently and few of the original incumbents now remained; that the intent was to form a permanent directorate, adding that the chairmen would, in any event, be members ex-officio; but since the general sentiment of the meeting seemed to favor the larger board, a motion to amend the report, made by Dr. Blackburn and seconded by Mr. Rowley, was entertained by the chair and adopted without a dissenting vote, the amendment providing for seven additional nominees, as follows: Mesdames Arthur Brown, Helen Sadler, Jack Boettner, Helen I. Campbell, A. S. Chase, C. L. Bullard and Miss Coral Griffith.

Mr. Rowley, Mrs. Glenwood Jones, A. T. Cowan and Mrs. Bartlett participated in the discussion which followed the spirited defense of nominations from the floor put up by Dr. Blackburn and Mrs. White, but the meeting ended in the utmost good feeling and general satisfaction over the directorate chosen.

At the suggestion of Chairman Braly, Mrs. Bartlett, who had been named first on the directorate, was recognized as its chairman, and stated that she would call a meeting of the board the last of the week to elect officers and effect its organization.

The address made by Chairman J. H. Braly was as follows:

To the Members of the Red Cross and Citizens of Glendale—Greetings:

Since the time that our country entered the great war, April 6, 1917, up to the close of the war on October 11, 1918, the world has passed through the greatest period of its history. The conflict between good and evil began 6,000 years ago, when Cain slew his brother Abel, and that conflict has continued down through the ages—man against man, tribe against tribe, nation against nation—until, four years ago, the German kaiser said to the devil: "I will fall down and worship you if you will make me ruler of all the nations in the world." And the world war began—the great conflict between good and evil, the terrible conflict between right and might, between justice and tyranny, between democracy and autocracy. Many nations were drawn

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Amsterdam, Nov. 21. (Delayed.)—"I hope when peace is signed America will remember that she and Germany once were friendly," the former Crown Prince of Germany declared today in an interview with a United Press correspondent.

The correspondent traveled with the prince from Swaelmen to Wierengen, where he is interned.

MUSICIAN M. L. WHITE

SON OF H. E. WHITE OF LA CANADA WRITES ENTERTAINING LETTER FROM FRONT.

France, Oct. 14, 1918.

Dear Mama and Papa: I guess I have been neglecting you folks some, but have been moving so much that I just couldn't get to it.

Since I last wrote I have been assigned to the 165th infantry band of the 42nd division, known as the Rainbow division. You have heard of them. I guess I'll stay with this bunch.

While on my way to this band I had a sample of the work that the Red Cross is doing. There was a small party of us, and we got into a little town about 6:30 or 7 in the morning. We were all pretty tired, for these European trains are slow sometimes. We spotted the little American Red Cross and there we pulled ourselves. They had a good fire in the grate, and say, that felt pretty fine. They gave us all the hot coffee and sandwiches we could eat, and at noon we had hot hash, beans and tomatoes. It never cost us a cent and we just took possession of the place all day. In the afternoon they made ice cream and all the boys there got a crack at it. Pretty good, I think.

I have sent to my old company for my mail, and I guess after a while I'll get it. I have had no mail for a long time, but lots of others have had the same trouble, so dig in and write now.

Enclosed you will find a Christmas package coupon. I guess you can get that sweater in the box. I would like a pair of wristlets and a pair of woolen gloves if you can get them in. I need some handkerchiefs, too, but that little box can't hold all of it.

At another Red Cross I got a woolel helmet and muffler and a bar of chocolate, so you need not worry about those things. If you can get in a small bath towel and a handkerchief or so with the sweater, just add them.

Well, I guess I must close, so here goes. With love.

MANTON L. WHITE.

LOOKING FOR LETTERS

Mrs. J. E. Rockhold is cherishing the hope that her husband will be invalided home and will be with her at Christmas. When she last heard from him he was in the hospital. Her son is with the Forty-second Division, which is going forward into Germany as an army of occupation. She, with other mothers of Glendale, is hoping that the ship which brought two million soldier letters will bring her a goodly share of mail. In her son's last letter he told of being transferred to infantry work on a call so urgent that the men could not be furnished with their sleeping tents. In consequence they had to lie out in the rain and when ordered forward in the morning the weight of their soaked clothing and blankets was so great they could hardly carry it.

Mrs. Rockhold will be one of the family party entertained by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bardsley, of North Glendale, on Thanksgiving Day.

PRIVATE WALTER WITWORTH DEAD

Will Witworth of Los Angeles has just received the sad news that his brother, Private Walter Witworth, is dead of double Pneumonia in France. He formerly resided in Glendale, on North Jackson street, and his wife died here a year ago last February. She was a sister of Mrs. C. M. Good of South Louise Street, who died recently. Private Witworth left Los Angeles April 26, 1918, for Camp Lewis, and went from there to France.

MR. AND MRS. WHITING ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whiting will celebrate Thanksgiving with a family dinner. Covers will be laid for Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Henry, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Dates, Mrs. Annie McFarland and the host and hostess. Dr. Henry and Mesdames Dates and McFarland are brother and sisters of Mrs. Whiting, who have recently come from the east to make their home in Los Angeles. Decorations will consist of poinsettias and autumn foliage.

NO PAPER THANKSGIVING

In accordance with our usual custom, no paper will be published from the Evening News office, tomorrow, Thanksgiving day.

IMPROVEMENT MEETING

GREATER GLENDALE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

Prospective members of an association that has been named Greater Glendale Development Association met at 134 North Brand Boulevard Tuesday evening, and took steps toward forming a permanent organization. The committee to whom had been assigned the work of suggesting a name for the new association presented the name, Glendale District Development Club. Discussion brought out the fact that the words district and club were objectionable parts of the name, and after considerable amending and re-amending the name, Greater Glendale Development Association, was chosen as the appellation of the organization.

The committee recommended that the officers of the association be: Norton C. Wells, president; Charles H. Toll, vice president; C. D. Lusby, secretary; F. H. Vesper, treasurer. The recommendation of the committee was accepted and these men were elected officers of the Greater Glendale Development Association.

The committee then recommended that twenty-five second vice presidents be elected, and that these vice presidents serve as a board, whose duty it will be to elect seven of their number, who will act as an executive committee.

On motion it was decided that the men present suggest an additional twenty-five names, and that the president and vice president be empowered to select the twenty-five second vice-presidents from the list of fifty.

Persons present who took an active part in the meeting were Norton C. Wells, Chas. H. Toll, Mayor G. B. Woodberry, W. E. Evans, Frank E. Peters, C. W. Ingledue, M. B. Jones, Dr. H. R. Harrower, V. M. Hollister, Alex Mitchell, C. L. Chandler, A. T. Cowan, C. U. Mandis, G. H. Bentley, Wesley Bullis, Calvin Whiting, Sam P. Stoddard, Roy L. Kent, J. B. Cohn, Mr. Levy, John Robert White, Jr., H. G. MacBain, D. S. Phillips, J. H. Mellish, L. T. Rowley, Francis J. W. Henry, Glen M. Ely.

Adjournment was made to meet at the same place in one week, Tuesday evening, December 3.

MAJOR, COMMANDANT

NORMAN C. HAYHURST RECEIVES COMMISSION FOR SUMMER WORK AT PRESIDIO

Boys in the physical and military training departments of Glendale Union High School will probably be pluming themselves greatly on the possession of a commander of high rank.

Tuesday morning Principal George U. Moyse received form Sacramento for Norman C. Hayhurst a commission as major and commandant of cadets, officially signed by Governor Stephens, Adjutant General J. P. Borree, and Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state, which was granted to him for successful work at the Presidio Training School during the summer.

Those who know Major Hayhurst's outstanding abilities rejoice over this well-deserved honor which he has conscientiously earned, and the bestowal of the commission is quite a feather in the cap of the school.

H. A. WILSON LEAVES FOR FRANCE

H. A. Wilson of North Louise Street left Los Angeles this morning at 10 o'clock on the Santa Fe for New York, where he expects to spend a week in intensive training and then embark for France, where he has been assigned to special work in athletics under the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Wilson signed up for this service four months ago, when the situation looked pretty dark. Now that peace has come he is no quitter, but is still willing to cross the seas to do what he can for the army of occupation, and if need be to help solve the problems of reconstruction. Mr. Wilson came to Glendale from Wisconsin about eight years ago, and identified himself with civic and religious work for the community as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and an active worker in the First Methodist Church. He has many friends here whose interest and good wishes will follow him in his larger field under other skies.

Arthur G. Munn, who has been living at 501 West Colorado for the past year, has bought the San Fernando Press, a weekly newspaper published in that city, and with his family is moving to San Fernando to take charge of his purchase next week. He was formerly a prominent real estate dealer in Los Angeles.

CHRISTMAS LABELS

Labels for Christmas packages to soldiers overseas are still being given out at the package headquarters, two doors north of the post office.

The committee has special labels for friends who have not received them from the soldiers.

The Christmas package headquarters on Brand Boulevard will be closed all day Thanksgiving, as will be also the Red Cross office.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Thanksgiving Day this year is unique in the history of the world. The American heart, above all others, should swell with gratitude and praise to the Giver from whom all blessings flow. Our annual service this year will be held in the First Methodist Church, corner Wilson Avenue and Kenwood Street, at 10:30 o'clock (for just one hour), giving ample time for family reunions and the like. Rev. W. E. Edmonds, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city, will bring the message. The spirit of true patriotism should make itself shown and felt by crowding the courts of the Lord's house at that hour. This is a union service of all the federated and non-federated churches of Glendale. Everybody is most cordially welcome, without regard to the color line or creed, whether a member of any of our churches or not. This is to be a community union service such as we never held before. Everybody come out.

R. W. MOTTERN,
Secretary Glendale Church Fed.

THANKSGIVING LINENS FOR FRANCE

Red Cross workers are sending out a special appeal to mothers and housewives, asking them in taking an inventory of Thanksgiving linens to remember the hospitals in France and the boys, some of whom may be from our own homes, who are being cared for there. This has been designated as Linen Shower Week, and the quota for the Glendale chapter is as follows:

133 bath towels 19x38 inches.
266 hand towels 18x30 inches.
178 handkerchiers 18x18 inches.
13 napkins 14x14 inches.
80 sheets 64x102 inches, with two-inch hem at top and one-inch hem at bottom. Sheets may be accepted if longer than these specifications, but not shorter ones. If each Glendale family would send a few pieces that could be easily spared, the quota would soon be made up. No more suitable thank offering could be made.

into the conflict. Our own great, peace-loving nation was also drawn into it; and the whole world was quivering and convulsing with the shock of battles. It was war, war, war, all around the earth—fighting on the land, fighting on the water and under the water, as well as fighting in the air. Ten thousand times Truth was crushed to earth, but rose again.

General Foch, the immortal, the Christ man, came out of a humble little church, after a season of "talking with God" and "the time had come" to save the world; "the hour had struck." The Huns were pouring across the River Marne, preparatory to the onrush on Paris. The French veterans were unable to stop them. When Foch, with unerring divine inspiration, gave the order to our own blessed boys to attack the enemy, to assume the offensive, the response was magnificent, with an amazing result. God gave courage and zeal to our boys and they struck the oncoming Huns with such fury that they reeled and sped back across the Marne with spirits demoralized and a great loss of life. The tide of battle had turned; "the day was won." From that very day, July 18, 1918, the Allied armies swept on from victory to victory in the battles until October 11 of this year, when the enemies of God and humanity were vanquished and peace was declared.

When the United States went into the war, we all went in! The good people of Glendale organized the Glendale Red Cross chapter. Very soon it was in excellent working order. It worked with patriotic zeal and Christian fervor. The executive committee, twenty in number, consisting of the committee chairmen, met at the Braly home once every two weeks for several months. Reports were made and methods of work discussed. The zeal and harmony that prevailed at all the meetings was delightful.

The work done and the sacrifices made by thousands of women and children and men has been beyond all words of praise and commendation. God bless them forever more! I have had the honor and privilege of being your chairman during the past year and a half of your wonderful work, and I have esteemed the privilege of working with you. Every member of the executive committee has a warm place in my heart, and I shall remember them with pleasure. I should love to call the roll and give to each member an honorable mention at the present hour, but time will not permit. We have all done what we could, and that is pay and pleasure enough. Glendale has done worthily her part in the great war.

Thanks be to God, the war is over and we must get our Red Cross work onto a peace basis. There will be much for the Red Cross to do for several years. To accomplish that work it is the judgment of your chairman that a permanent board of directors should be chosen at this meeting.

"SMALL CAN OF WHALE" MAY BE DAILY ORDER

(By United Press)

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 27.—Whale canning is Canada's most flourishing infant industry.

A whalery in this province has packed about 30,000 cases of whale meat in neat tin cans, for this winter's consumption.

Whales taken near this coast yield from three to twelve tons of prime whale meat, the whalers say. Boston at present is the best customer for frozen fresh whale.

ITALY LOKKED AHEAD TO "AFTER THE WAR"

(By United Press)

Rome, Nov. 26.—Italy has taken the initiative as perhaps no other Allied country in resolving in advance so far as is possible the problems of the transition from mobilized to civilian life and the inevitable problems of "after the war."

A commission of 600 members has been working on the steps to be taken for months past and is now holding day and night sessions. These 600 members are divided into 27 sections, each section having exclusive charge of one of the big problems that demobilization will entail.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Thursday. Frost Thursday morning.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Shaw and family, of Park Avenue, will spend Thanksgiving at Hermosa Beach with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitaker and family are to have a quiet Thanksgiving at home. Their daughter, Caro, who is taking a nurse's training course at Pasadena, will be with them.

Mrs. Louise Prudhon of Los Angeles, who has been sojourning at the Glendale Sanitarium for rest and special treatment, will return to her home in the Angel City for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke of 325 West Acacia entertained the Pioneer Club Tuesday afternoon. About eight members were present and a very pleasant afternoon was devoted to needlework and informal sociability.

Jessie Cooksey's studio is now a busy scene of activity, as the holiday rush for portraits is now on. Those who do not wish to be disappointed in getting their Christmas work should make arrangements for their work at once.

Referring to their Thanksgiving plans, Mrs. J. H. Braly states the observance of the day in her family will be a very quiet one. Her daughter and son-in-law from Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kirk, will be with them, but the big gathering of the Braly family originally planned will not take place.

Professor George Sawyer of Glendale Union High School has received additional particulars regarding the death of his brother, who passed away Monday morning and who was one of the soldiers stationed at San Pedro. His passing was due to combination of influenza, mumps and measles, which terminated in pneumonia.

Myron Betz, who was brought to Glendale from Sacramento ill of double pneumonia and almost in a dying condition, but who "pulled through" under the splendid care he received at the Glendale Sanitarium, has been transferred to the home of his mother, and hopes to be well enough to go with her to Los Angeles the last of the week.

The Glendale fire engine at station number one was called out Tuesday for another small blaze. This time it was an outbuilding at 204 West Lomita, on the property of W. N. Stamps. It was ignited by a rubbish fire placed too near the shed. When the engine arrived it had been partially extinguished. The damage was insignificant.

There will be a pleasant house party at Palm Villa, the home of the Hickman-Imler family, Thanksgiving Day, although Captain Eugene Imler and Miss Margery Imler, son and daughter of the house, will not be there. The guest list will include John J. Hickman and his friend, Mr. Bryant, from Colorado Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Englehart and their daughters, Edith and Hilda, of Brawley, who will motor up from the Imperial Valley, and who will perhaps be accompanied by Mr. Ziegler of Brawley.

Mrs. Delia Hapgood of Los Feliz Road will be hostess at a family Thanksgiving dinner Thursday, when covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Will Dutton and daughters, Jessie and Dorothy; Mrs. Burlingham and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spear and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Tiffany and Charles Hapgood. Mrs. Hapgood expects to go to the Imperial Valley to visit the Peck family soon after Thanksgiving, and plans to spend the holidays there.

Mrs. Montague Cleeves of Boynton street, who hears frequently from Captain Cleeves, stationed at Camp Kearny and on the staff of the base hospital there, says that as yet the men do not know when they will be discharged. All the officers have had their choice of remaining in service or returning to their homes. The influenza quarantine is being lifted by companies. When a company has been free from a case for seventy-two hours, the men are granted leave. Captain Cleeves hopes to be home for Christmas, and after being discharged from service is planning to go abroad with Mrs. Cleeves and accept a position in an English hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dean of 719 North Central Avenue are leaving for Elsinore to visit Mr. and Mrs. Will Corwin, who formerly resided in Glendale and have many friends here. They go by train to Riverside, where Mr. Corwin will meet them and they expect to remain until Sunday. Mrs. Dean has just received a letter from her sister, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Howard Scott, stationed at the army camp at Rockford, Ill., conveying the sad news that they have lost their baby by pneumonia. She and her husband have had influenza, and Mrs. Dean assumes it was the cause of the infant's death. The Scotts have visited in Glendale and have quite a circle of friends here.

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett is expecting her sister from Santa Barbara, who will spend Thanksgiving with her and remain for a few days' visit.

Harry Valliant of West Colorado Street, whose mother has been very ill in Los Angeles, is bringing her to Glendale to be cared for in his own home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Casselman of 451 West Elk Avenue will entertain on Thanksgiving their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Lampert, and their granddaughter, Gladys Lampert.

Mrs. W. L. Fowler and little daughter, Marjorie, of Riverside, are guests at the home of Mrs. Fowler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Quinch, 718 East Harvard. Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett of Pasadena will be Thanksgiving guests at the Quinch home, and Mr. Fowler will come Sunday to accompany his family home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lusby of North Jackson street will be host and hostess at a family Thanksgiving dinner party at which the members of four families will be entertained. Covers will be laid for Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Lusby and baby Donald, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and family, Mrs. H. A. Wilson and son, Verne; Miss Margaret Lusby and the host and hostess.

At the Glendale Red Cross chapter are four handsome quilts, pieced for the organization by a group of neighbors on Patterson Avenue, who have been unable, on account of domestic cares, to give as much time at headquarters as they desired. They were brought to the chapter by Mrs. C. W. Kinnan, one of the neighbors, and are to be shipped for Belgian relief.

BEN DURHAM'S GOOD FORTUNE

Ben Durham, whose mother resides at 579 West Elk Avenue, has had good fortune. He recently completed four years in the navy and came home for a furlough. He reported at San Pedro after re-enlisting and was asked if he knew anything about wig-wag signalling, as they were seeking an instructor. He replied that he did and that he had studied both the English and American codes. They then tested him on receiving, in which he made an excellent record. He was then tried out on sending and did it so rapidly that their experts could not keep up with him. As a result he has been established there as wig-wag signal instructor and his mates call him "Professor." It is a fine position with increased pay, and he will be able to come home frequently.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER MEETING

At the Presbyterian Church this evening at 7:30, there will be held the regular annual Thanksgiving prayer meeting. This yearly event is always of more than ordinary interest. All who attend are expected to tell the thing for which they are most thankful. For those who are unable to attend there is a plan by which they may send their sentiments in written form to the pastor or some officer of the church. These letters will be read at the meeting, and where there is sickness or other troubles, special prayer will be made for relief.

It is hoped that a special effort will be made on the part of the entire congregation to enter heartily into this Thanksgiving service.

MUSIC SECTION MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, called for Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Betcher, 356 Sycamore Avenue, has been postponed indefinitely on account of the influenza situation and the "stay-at-home" policy recommended for Los Angeles and suburbs.

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—Here's good news for sleep-haters. Magistrate Mecleary, central police station, has ruled that "friendly" poker games indulged in by a round robin of 20 men, even when hundreds of vari-colored chips are put into action, does not constitute a "wicked gambling enterprise." The 20 men were released.

Their guest list will include Dr. George Bahrenberg and wife and Dr. Norman Bahrenberg, wife and daughter, all of Bakersfield; Mrs. K. Bahrenberg (sister of the hostess) and her son, William Bahrenberg, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Buiseret; Charles Crones and his bride, nee Agnes Buiseret; Mr. and Mrs. Gavadil Hunt, son and daughter, Mr. Charles Wicks, all of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. George Wicks of Bakersfield. All members of the party are related either directly or by marriage. The table will be centered with roses and ferns and the Bahrenberg home will be lavishly decorated with chrysanthemums from the garden of the hostess. Dinner will be served at 3 o'clock and will be followed by an evening of music, as most of the members of the company are accomplished musicians. The two doctors will leave at midnight for the return trip to Bakersfield, but their families will remain until the day following.

The Cost of the Paint You DON'T Buy

Wind, sun and rain work their ravages on your building; its life is shortened; repairs are needed sooner; the appearance is shabby and reflects on your own energy and thrift; the value of the property is decreased.

Add these together and you will have the cost of the paint you DID NOT BUY.

As a matter of mere SAVING, it pays to paint.

The actual PRICE is so small in comparison with the RESULTS, that the gain in that one item alone should make you act.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

DESIGN NO. 525

For the small family which desires those elements of attraction, convenience and comfort, yet without building a large home, we suggest this Colonial design. The exterior needs no description beyond the above illustration. There are four rooms—living room, dining room, one bedroom, small hall connecting all with bath and kitchen; a breakfast nook off the kitchen is a novel feature. A four-room bungalow with the conveniences of a mansion.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The homes illustrated here each week are selected from the designs of the Lumbermen's Service Association. Any information, floor plans or cost to build will be gladly furnished by either of the local members of this association:

"IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN--IT'S YOU"

If you want to live in the kind of a town
Like the kind of a town you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.

You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing that's really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town—
For it isn't your town—it's you.

Real towns are not made by men afraid
Lest somebody else gets ahead.
When everyone works and nobody shirks
You can raise a town from the dead.

And if, while you make your personal stake,
Your neighbor can make his, too;
Your town will be what you'd like it to be—
IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU.

—W. T. Denniston.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

DO YOU KNOW?

That a wave of prosperity is here is a fact known by all who can read the signs of the times. There have been several years of depression in business caused by war conditions. Patriotism has had first place in every loyal heart in this country. Money-making has been given a second place. Now that peace has been declared, all efforts are turned to establishing industries that will give the brave soldier boys employment when they settle down again to civilian life.

All available money must be put into use in carrying on legitimate business. Idle money, like idle men, will accomplish nothing. The man who in times of peace hides money away in vaults is like the man who hides away in time of war when his country needs him—both are slackers. Rash investments should not be encouraged, but the wholesome and safe use of money is needed to build up the industries of our American nation, the greatest nation in the world.

One hundred residences are needed in Glendale now, and the men who stand ready to build them will be real benefactors to their community. They will give employment to the unemployed, they will provide suitable homes for the many tourists who are anxious to become citizens of Southern California.

TO BUILD YOUR HOME HERE

IS TO PLACE YOUR STAMP OF APPROVAL ON THIS COMMUNITY

It marks you as a Citizen of Permanence.

It ranks you among the Earnest and Thrifty who are Successful or on the Road to Success

No city can be better than its Homes. Glendale enjoys an enviable place among the cities of Southern California as a Home City.

The best way to make it a Better City is to increase the percentage of Home Owners.

Home Ownership is the true badge of Citizenship and no man has reached the full status as a man until he owns his own home.

Uncle Dan's Column

"THE HOME COMING"

Howdy, folks! Now that I'm comin' 'round from my peace celebration, the editor says my column is still a-waitin' fo' me, but he says he orta give it to somebody who'd appreciate it mor'n me, say a movie press agent or somethin'. He wanted to kill me 'stead o' excusin' me, but, folks, I nigh passed in my checks twict anyways, once on that recent Monday mornin' from physical strain whilst tryin' to vent my feelin's, and agin some hours later from a close shave o' natural death from thirst fo' a pitcher o' "Artic Champaign." Yes, sir, a couple o' us cronies got real hoarse from hollerin' and started in search of a rain water barrel, an' I guess we found the wrong barrel—an' being real thirsty, well———?

But, anyways, that's all over but the memory, and I'm givin' agin to dreamin' and lookin' ahead to the day when the boys will be a-comin' home. I mind the time, years back, when a Yankee soldier come home from war, and to you younger folks what think that recent Monday was a celebration I'm warnin' you for a surprise on the day we welcome the boys back from over there.

Better start plannin' now, folks, 'cause it's to be some party. Jest ask any mother or sweetheart. They 're all plannin' it now and to keep their hearts from chokin' 'em they're fixn' and decoratin' the old home for the reunion. They're paintin' and puttin' up new curtains and addin' a sleepin' porch for HIM, and many is buildin' a new home, whilst some o' the sweethearts is makin' out invitation lists, fo' I'm thinkin' that peal o' weddin' bells will be part o' the noise in this celebration.

Then for years to come our firesides will harbor evenin' gatherin's o' us and the generations to come a-listenin' to the tales o' him who fought on the fields o' France.

But now, folks, while we wait for the home comin', let's get ready and let our homes reflect the joyousness o' our hearts. "UNCLE DAN."
